

Prelude “Beautiful Savior, King of Creation”

arr. F.M. Christiansen

The Welcome

The Greeting

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

The Call to Worship

Come and see what our God has done! Look around at the world he has made, teeming with life, beauty, and wonder.

Every living thing relies on his open hand, and he never fails to provide.

But our God is not just the God of the past; he is the God of our future. Hear his promise: "Behold, I am creating all things new."

Let us worship the God who makes all things new.

He is turning our weeping into joy and drawing us into a world made right. So bring your weary hearts, bring your songs of gratitude, and join the chorus of all creation. Come, let us worship the Lord of life and renewal!

Glory be to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Hymn of Praise “All Creatures of our God and King”

LUYH 551 vs 1-3,6

The Psalm

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

These all look to you, to give them their food in due season. When you give it to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

When you send forth your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the ground.

May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord rejoice in his works, who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke!

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being. May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the Lord.

Psalm 104:24, 27–34

The Confession of Sin

Almighty God, Lord of heaven and earth, your glory is woven through all of creation, and your open hand satisfies every living thing. We confess that we have closed our eyes to your majesty and turned away from your goodness. We have chosen our own paths, pursued our own thoughts, and wandered into ways that are not good. We have broken fellowship with you, brought brokenness to your world, and doubted your promise of a restored creation. Forgive us, merciful Father. Cleanse us from our self-reliance, heal our rebellious hearts, and renew us by your Holy Spirit. Teach us to live dependently on your grace, that we might rejoice in your handiwork and walk faithfully in your ways, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A brief moment of silence for individual confession of sin.

The Assurance of Pardon

Hear the good news: Our God is a merciful Father who does not desire our ruin, but our renewal. He is the God who promises, "Before they call I will answer; while they are still speaking I will hear." To all who truly repent, he offers full pardon and peace. He forgives your sins, strengthens you in goodness, and invites you into his new creation—where sorrow will be no more and all things are made right. Walk in the assurance of his love, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Song of Thanksgiving “Your Love, Oh Lord”

The Prayer of Blessing for Children

Lord of all power and might, you are the giver of every good thing, and you love these children deeply. Plant the love of your name deep within their hearts, and help them to know you truly. Nourish them with your goodness, so they may grow strong in faith and overflow with the fruit of love, joy, and kindness. Protect them and keep them close to you always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Children 4 years-5th Grade are invited to Walk Out Worship.
They will be dismissed to join their families in the North Hall.)

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.
